

4/22/07 Sunday Evening

What are you going to do with the rest of your life?

Joel 2:25

A distinction between believing and receiving

Just because you have finished something doesn't mean it's over.

God has a prepared blessing for you.

The blessing of the Lord is lost because you don't have the capacity to receive.

We cannot get better until we get honest.

Happiness is a choice (yours).

Are you going to be the one people talk about or the one talking?
